Still, Egyptians must ask: why? How could the Begin administration allow such a thing to happen? These are not novel questions. The anguished American Jewish community - and indeed the whole world - are asking them today. But with this difference: We have signed a peace treaty with Israel. But it was also clear in these confused weeks that it is not too late for the mainstream parties to regain the confidence of the younger generation - not by using Green vocabulary and not by the politics-as-usual that often passes for leadership in West Germany but by plain-speaking and realistic leadership. We Germans need to strip our politics of the moralism and emotionalism that marks both the Greens and the mainstream parties.	False	By Manfred Rommel	1982-10-06	TX 984913
